3. Staff Duty Officers will be responsible for the receipt of incoming calls, effecting immediate emergency action when necessary, and complying with such special instructions as may be assigned. Clerical assistance will be provided by the personnel assigned above. Each Staff Officer, before leaving the Office of the Director on Saturday, will call the Office of the Deputy Director (Support) -- Ext. 717 -- and inquire if there will be any necessity to remain longer. If there is no answer, it can be assumed that the DD/S's office is closed, and there will be no need to remain longer.

4. Each Staff Duty Officer will familiarize himself with CIA Regulation [REDACTED] CIA Watch - Critical Information.

5. Any officer or clerical assistant who cannot serve his appointed tour will advise the Chief, Administrative Staff, not less than two days in advance of the duty period. Where relief from this duty is purely for the convenience of the individual concerned, he or she may arrange for exchange of duty with any other persons of similar category listed above. The Chief, Administrative Staff will be advised of this exchange not less than one day in advance of duty period.

6. Any important happening that in the judgement of the Staff Duty Officer should be included in the Director's Daily Log -- LI 5-500-1, dated 1 April 1954 -- should be made known to the Assistant Director of Logistics on the following Monday.

7. The Duty Officer's Guide Book should be picked up in Room 1C-47, Quarters Eye, by the Duty Officer the day before his tour of duty.
